

My Love, My Blessing

Lyric Sheet

Verse 1:

She wakes each day with a grateful heart,
A woman of faith, a mother set apart.
God placed a fire of love inside her soul,
A strength that lifts her family and makes them whole.

Her laughter fills the walls of home,
Her prayers wrap 'round them wherever they go—
For every step they take, she's there,
A gentle whisper, a mother's prayer.

Verse 2:

Issam.... my love... my partner, my guide,
"Mr. I'm Always Right" — the rock by my side.
Your strength holds me steady, your heart keeps me brave,
With God between us, there's nothing we can't face.
And to my children... you are pieces of my heart,
Each one a blessing from the very start.

Chorus:

You are my love, my blessing, my life,
My joy in the morning, my peace in the night.
May God's light surround you wherever you go,
May His grace protect you more than you know.
I thank Him each day for the love we share—
My family, my strength, my answered prayer.

Verse 3:

Assim... my first joy... you opened my eyes
To the wonder of motherhood, the gift in your smile.
Smart, strong, a helper, my proud little man—
God's hand is on you, guiding your plan.

Gheddy and Odai.... my joyful pair—
Your laughter lifts the heaviest air.
Gheddy, my chef, with creations so sweet;
Odai, with hugs that make my heart beat.
Two souls of sunshine, thoughtful and true,
God's love shines brightly in both of you.

Verse 4:

Kamoule.... my baby, my sweet little light,
Your hugs and your kisses make everything right.
Your laughter is healing, your spirit so pure—
A blessing God crafted with love, I am sure.

And Alina... my princess, my darling girl—
You add sweetness and sparkle to our world.
Lovely and funny, a helper so kind—
You're the joy God wrote into our lives.

Chorus (Blended):

You are my love, my blessing, my life,
My joy in the morning, my peace in the night.
May God's light surround you wherever you go,
May His grace protect you more than you know.
I thank Him each day for the love we share—
My family, my strength, my answered prayer.

Bridge:

And hand in hand, this family stands,
Held together by love, guided by God's hands.
From the home they've built to the land they adore—
Lebanon in their hearts forever more.
Through every season, every mile—
Their bond grows deeper, mile by mile.

Final Verse:

I can't wait for the years still waiting ahead—
For laughter, for joy, for prayers to be said.
For memories in Lebanon, sun in our eyes,
For health, happiness, blessings that rise.
Stay good, keep praying, let love be your way—
With God in your hearts, you'll never lose your way.

Final Chorus:

You are my love, my blessing, my life,
My joy in the morning, my peace in the night.
May God's light surround you wherever you go,
May His grace protect you more than you know.
Forever my family... forever my prayer—
My heart, my world, my love always there.
